Collect

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things,
may obtain your promises,
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage,
you have led us to the living water:
refresh us and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dates for your Diary:

Goodbye to Revd Natalie - Revd Natalie's last Sunday before she leaves for her new role as Succentor, St George's Chapel Windsor Castle and Chaplain, St George's School, will be 9th August. Hers and Joseph's final service with us will be Choral Evensong at St Mary's at 6.30pm followed by refreshments. She will also be presiding at 8am and 10.30am. Natalie will be working around the other churches in our team to take final services as follows- St Mark's at 10am on 12th July, All Saints at 8am & 10.30am on 19th July, and St Nicholas' Studland at 10am on 2nd August.

Natalie's installation in St George's Chapel will take place at Evensong at 5.15pm on 1st September. All are welcome. Parking is available in the town centre car parks. Please arrive to King Henry VIII gate by 5pm, the police officers on duty will let you know when the Chapel doors have opened (seating in the Quire is limited so early arrival is recommended to give the best chance of a view- the screen between Quire and Nave is annoyingly solid!).

REFLECTION

Matthew 13: 1-9 and 18-23 – The Parable of the Sower

The Parable of the Sower is one of Jesus' most memorable teachings and familiar to many of us. In this passage, Jesus describes a farmer scattering seed on different types of ground. Some seed falls on the path, some on rocky ground, some among thorns, and some on good soil. In the later verses of today's Gospel, Jesus explains this parable to his disciples. The seed represents the word of God, while the different soils represent the condition of people's hearts. This parable challenges us to reflect on how we receive and respond to God's message in our own lives. It encourages us to take a look at our lives regularly and determine whether we are continuing to be that good soil, being fruitful for God, or whether other things are creeping in that might mar or stunt our spiritual growth and fruitfulness as his disciples.

The good soil is the example we should strive to always be, with hearts that are open, faithful and obedient, and through applying God's word to our lives bear fruit through acts of kindness, love, forgiveness, and service to others. This fruit not only strengthens our own faith but also is a really positive witness to the power and presence of Christ those around us.

This Sunday is Sea Sunday, when the Church particularly prays for seafarers and those who work at sea. As an island kingdom, the sea is vital for our trade and life, so today we give thanks for those who work in often hazardous circumstances to bring us food, fish and goods and who often bear privations that most of us would find too hard to bear. Also, we remember and pray for chaplaincy services such as The Mission to Seafarers, who minister to seafarers in our ports and around the world, offering practical help and support to those far away from home for long periods. Those of us on land are called to be "good soil" by responding with compassion, supporting organisations that care for seafarers and remembering them in our prayers.

Every Blessing
Ian
