Collect

Almighty God,
you have created the heavens and the earth
and made us in your own image:
teach us to discern your hand in all your works
and your likeness in all your children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who with you and the Holy Spirit
reigns supreme over all things,
now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

God our creator,
by your gift, the tree of life was set at the heart of the earthly paradise,
and the bread of life at the heart of your Church:
may we who have been nourished at your table on earth
be transformed by the glory of the Saviour's cross
and enjoy the delights of eternity;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Holy Communion 10.00am
Revd Tony Edmonds

A very warm welcome to our service this morning in St Nicholas Church, Studland

... and a special welcome if you are a visitor to our Church! This is a Holy Communion service, and you are most welcome to take Communion with us. If you need a gluten-free wafer, please ask. Or if you would prefer to have a blessing, just bring this Notice Sheet with you to the communion rail, to give an indication to the priest. And, if you would prefer to receive communion in your seat, just mention this to the sides person (the person who welcomed you when you came into church).

Children are most welcome in our church. Do not worry if they are noisy or make a break for freedom: we are just delighted to have the children in Church with us. There are toys in the two green boxes at the back of the Church - and everyone is welcome to use them.

We do not pass around a collection plate at St Nicholas' Church, but we are most appreciative of donations to help maintain both the Church and its ministry. We have a traditional plate for cash donations with Gift Aid envelopes available as well as a contactless card payments station at the exit to the Church. If you would like to make regular donations, please consider setting up a Standing Order with your bank: if this is of interest, please contact the Treasurer, Eric Stobart at eric@thestobarts.co.uk.

After the service, we serve coffee, tea and other refreshments in the Church Hall. Please do join us - and get to know us all a little better.

For regular updates on Church activities throughout the week, please find us on www.achurchnearyou.com You can also follow us on Facebook. (St Nicholas Church Studland) – do give us a like or two!

St. Mary's – St. Mark's – All Saints' – St. Nicholas
8th February 2nd Sunday before Lent

Reading for this Sunday is: Romans 8, 18 - 25

Gospel Reading: Matthew 6, 25 - 34

²⁵ 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶ Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? ²⁷ And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? ²⁸ And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, ²⁹ yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. ³⁰ But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? ³¹ Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" ³² For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. ³³ But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

³⁴ 'So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.

Collect:

Almighty God,
you have created the heavens and the earth
and made us in your own image:
teach us to discern your hand in all your works
and your likeness in all your children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who with you and the Holy Spirit
reigns supreme over all things,
now and for ever.

Post Communion:

God our creator,
by your gift, the tree of life was set at the heart of the earthly paradise,
and the bread of life at the heart of your Church:
may we who have been nourished at your table on earth
be transformed by the glory of the Saviour's cross

REFLECTION

Genesis 1.1 - 2.3 Romans 8.18-25 Matthew 6.25-34

It's the year of Matthew's Gospel, and this week's reading is from one of the highlights of that gospel – The Sermon on the Mount – chapters 5,6 and 7 of Matthew. The technical term for this sort of writing is Wisdom literature, (another example would be the Old Testament Book of Proverbs); the purpose is to give practical advice for daily living.

At first sight today's practical teaching might seem rather reckless.

Jesus tells his listeners: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?" His aim, of course is not that we all starve or walk around in rags; it is to encourage us to re-assess our needs and ambitions. He is challenging us to think beyond our material concerns and preoccupations: "it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and, indeed, your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

Jesus does not want us to stop earning a living, or to renounce all the essentials of life. God's people are, however called to have different priorities from the rest of the world, (represented by the Gentiles in this passage). Re-thinking our priorities will mean different things to different people. It is too simplistic to say that the last part of a person to be converted is his wallet; (in my case, I am more attached to my car keys!). We are called to bring our whole lives and lifestyles under God's sovereignty, and to offer all that we are, not just all that we have to him, and to seek, with our whole selves, His Kingdom and His guidance for our place in that Kingdom.
