Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross:
grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant,
and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation:
give us the mind to follow you
and to proclaim you as Lord and King, to the glory of God the Father.

Coming to the 10.30am Sunday service at St Mary's ....

Sunday 29 March 2026
Palm Sunday
Holy Communion 10.00am
Revd Tony Edmonds

A very warm welcome to our service this morning in St Nicholas Church, Studland

... and a special welcome if you are a visitor to our Church! This is a Holy Communion service, and you are most welcome to take Communion with us. If you need a gluten-free wafer, please ask. Or if you would prefer to have a blessing, just bring this Notice Sheet with you to the communion rail, to give an indication to the priest.

Children are most welcome in our church. Do not worry if they are noisy or make a break for freedom: we are just delighted to have the children in Church with us. There are toys in the two green boxes at the back of the Church - and everyone is welcome to use them.

We do not pass around a collection plate at St Nicholas' Church, but we are most appreciative of donations to help maintain both the Church and its ministry. We have a traditional plate for cash donations with Gift Aid envelopes available as well as a contactless card payments station at the exit to the Church. If you would like to make regular donations, please consider setting up a Standing Order with your bank: for further further information, contact the Treasurer, Eric Stobart at eric@thestobarts.co.uk

After the service, we serve coffee, tea and other refreshments in the Church Hall. Please do join us - and get to know us all a little better.

For regular updates on Church activities throughout the week, please find us on www.achurchnearyou.com You can also follow us on Facebook. (St Nicholas Church Studland) – do give us a like or two!

29 March 2026 - Palm Sunday

Reading for this Sunday is: Psalm 118, 1- 2

Gospel Reading: Matthew 21, 1 - 11

<sup>21</sup> When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup> If anyone says anything to you, just say this, "The Lord needs them." And he will send them immediately. <sup>4</sup> This took place to fulfil what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

Look, your king is coming to you,
humble, and mounted on a donkey,
and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'

<sup>6</sup> The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; <sup>7</sup> they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. <sup>8</sup> A very large crowd <sup>9</sup> spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup> The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, 'Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!

<sup>10</sup> When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, 'Who is this?' <sup>11</sup> The crowds were saying, 'This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.'

REFLECTION

Psalm 118    Philippians 2:5-11    Matthew 26:14-27:66

A cinematographer of this dense Passion might choose long, slow, close-ups of the confrontations between Jesus and Judas over the cup and in the garden. It started when a mother and son (an ass and her foal ass - Zechariah 14.4) entered Jerusalem: God's presence with humanity is being restored.

It is the fulfilment of God's warning (Genesis 3.15) that there will be enmity between Satan and the Woman/Eve, and his children and hers. Satan will 'bruise the heel' of the Woman's child, but the child will 'bruise his head'. The same life-and-death confrontation between the dragon and the woman (Revelation 12) glimmers through this Gospel, from Herod's murderous search for the 'mother and her child' to the chief priests at the foot of the cross.

At the Passion it all comes into open. Jesus can be hailed as 'the Son of David'. His disciples, children of the Spirit, wave palm branches or garments, symbols of the Spirit's true teaching, as they welcome Spirit and Son on their passage to the temple. Psalm 118 reads as a liturgical Temple celebration of some sort, which, for Christians, foreshadows Jesus and the Eucharist – though Satan has finally got his prey – the one rival he will accept for the ransom of humankind. The Eucharist recalls and celebrates the Trinity's self-giving love that pays off Satan so dearly.

Meanwhile, Judas twice addresses Jesus as 'Rabbi', defying Jesus's instruction: 'Call no one "rabbi" for you have only one teacher, and you are all her children' (Matthew 23.8). The final act of betrayal is when Judas calls Jesus 'rabbi' a second time and kisses him (or does Matthew suggest that Judas is actually kissing 'affectionately' the 'rabbi', the Spirit, within Jesus?)

Jesus responds with 'Comrade' – the same word spoken by the master of the wedding feast to the man with no Wisdom garment before ejecting him. And just as Satan tempted Jesus in the wilderness, so 'Satan's brood' of the chief priests and their slaves taunt Jesus on the cross. Evil will be decisively defeated, but only by the Son's loving obedience to the very end, which means relinquishing even the comfort of the Spirit in order to die. That final, total emptying, described in Philippians 2.5-11, gives Satan no further claim over his family.
